

Alaska Trip 2012

Current 12th Grade

We'll make our way by planes and ferries to Hoonah, Alaska. Meaning "village by the cliff", Hoonah is a small fishing village with a population of 850. Most of the population is made up of native Alaskans of the Tlingit group. Last year, an immensely meaningful connection was made by helping with community projects, and we are thrilled to continue our relationship. We'll help out in the community as well as experience some of the fun and breath-taking activities Alaska has to offer.
